No. 3078947 13 October 2026

Excellencies,

Upon instructions from my Government, I wish to draw your attention, and that of the members of the Security Council, to a series of terrorist attacks carried out by the terrorist group Jaish al-Adl, and its affiliates, between 5 and 12 October 2026 in southeastern Iran, primarily in Sistan and Baluchestan Province. These heinous terrorist acts involving armed ambushes, attacks on law enforcement, and roadside explosive devices, have resulted in the loss of civilian and law enforcement lives.

1. On 5 October 2026, an armed attack targeted a Law Enforcement Command patrol on the Bampur–Iranshahr road in Sistan and Baluchestan Province, resulting in the martyrdom of two personnel and the wounding of another. On the same day, an attack was also conducted against civilians near Jakigur Bridge in Rask City, resulting in the death of one civilian.
2. On 7 October 2026, armed assailants attacked the Law Enforcement Command headquarters in Jaleq, Golshan County, using explosives, rocket-propelled weapons and small arms. The attack was claimed by the so-called People's Fighters Front, a coalition comprising several terrorist armed groups, including Jaish al-Adl.
3. On 8 October 2026, a vehicle carrying personnel of the Iranian Army came under armed attack in the Nikshahr area of Sistan and Baluchestan Province, resulting in the martyrdom of a military serviceman and the wounding of several others.
4. On the same day, a terrorist attack targeting a police patrol affiliated with the Nosratabad Tactical Unit was reported on the Lakshak main road in the Nosratabad area of Zahedan, Sistan and Baluchestan Province. The incident resulted in the death of Second Lieutenant Vahid Enayat, a police officer serving in the unit. In a separate incident, Major Mehdi Jamshidi, Chief of the Preventive Police of Faryab County in the neighbouring Kerman Province, was shot dead in the presence of his child by armed assailants after his vehicle was stopped on a street in Faryab.
5. On 9 October 2026, a particularly grave terrorist attack was carried out through the detonation of a roadside explosive device along the Cheshmeh Ziarat route in Zahedan City. The attack claimed the life of Lieutenant Colonel Ms. Nosrat Eftekhari, Deputy for

Cultural and Social Affairs of the Law Enforcement Command of Sistan and Baluchestan Province. She had been dispatched to the area to participate in community outreach activities, and address the concerns and problems of local poor communities residing in the outskirts of Zahedan. Her martyrdom underscores the indiscriminate and inhumane nature of these terrorist acts, which target not only security personnel but also individuals engaged in social community services.

6. On 12 October 2026, an armed attack targeting a vehicle carrying civilians was reported near Jakigur Bridge in Rask City, Sistan and Baluchestan Province, resulting in the death of one civilian and injuries to two others.

The terrorist group Jaish al-Adl, and its armed group affiliates, which subsequently claimed responsibility for these attacks, has an extensive and well-documented history of targeting civilians, law enforcement, and public institutions.

The Islamic Republic of Iran unequivocally condemns these heinous and cowardly terrorist acts and reiterates that terrorism in all its forms and manifestations is criminal and unjustifiable. While recalling the obligations of Member States under relevant United Nations Security Council resolutions, particularly resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1566 (2004), which address the prohibition of support for terrorist acts, the denial of safe haven to those involved in terrorism, and the accountability of those who finance, plan, facilitate, support or commit such acts, and reaffirming the importance of implementing resolutions 2178 (2014) and 2462 (2019) with respect to support for foreign terrorist fighters and the financing of terrorism, the Islamic Republic of Iran emphasizes that all those responsible for supporting, facilitating or financing terrorist acts must be held accountable in accordance with international law.

The Islamic Republic of Iran reaffirms its unwavering commitment to defending its people and protecting national security against any terrorist threats. The relevant authorities in the Islamic Republic of Iran will continue to fight terrorist groups and their sponsors with resolve, determination and full force until such threats are fully eradicated and uprooted from our territory. Furthermore, the Islamic Republic of Iran strongly calls upon the international community to strengthen intelligence-sharing mechanisms and take effective, concrete measures to dismantle the financial and logistical networks of the Jaish al-Adl terrorist group and its affiliates. Acts of terrorism and sabotage, particularly those orchestrated, financed or supported by foreign actors, will never deter the Islamic Republic of Iran from fulfilling its sovereign responsibility to protect its people and uphold justice with unwavering resolve.
